162nd Commencement

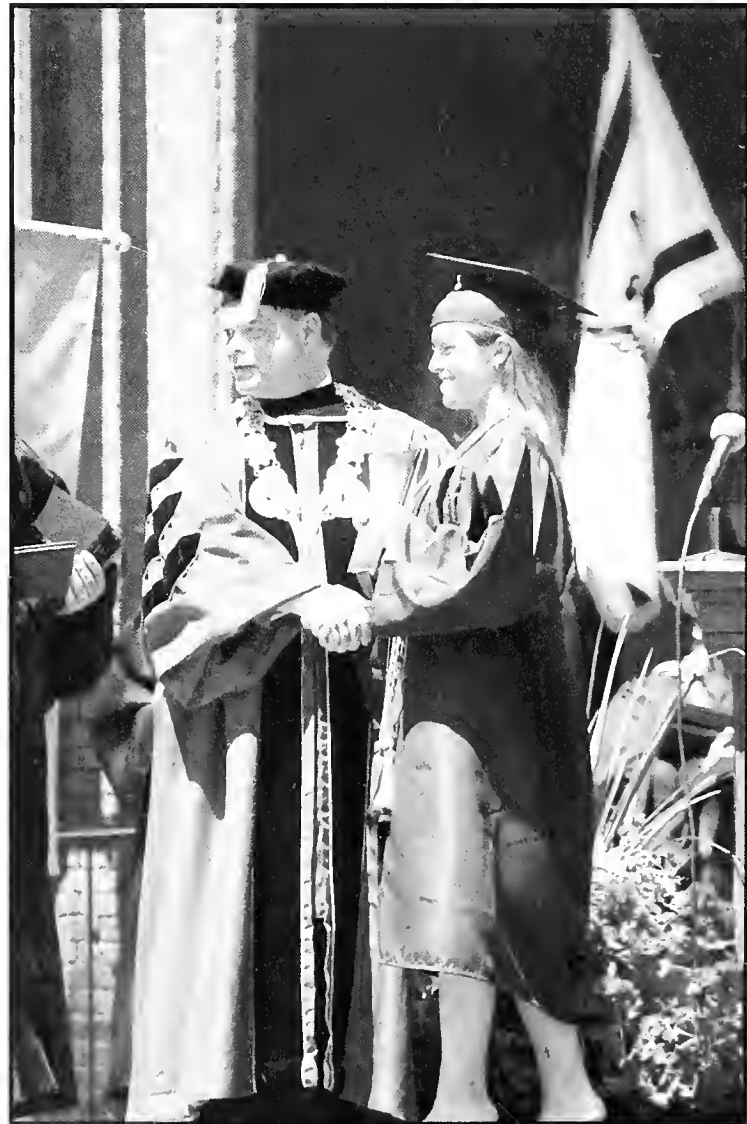

A Graduation Celebration

The 162nd Commencement was a beautiful day of joy and sorrow as the graduates move to the next phase of their lives. President Dr. Harvill Eaton addressed the graduates stating, "These graduates will build the next 162 years of Cumberland in a way that will eclipse Cumberland's past. I entrust the future of Cumberland to the graduates. I salute you on this graduation day. You bring out Cumberland's best!" Two honorary degrees were presented and U.S. Representative Harold Ford Jr. gave the commencement address.

Above: Congressman Harold Ford Jr. was the commencement speaker. He addressed the 418 graduates, emphasizing the importance of effective leadership. He reminded the graduates of other alumni of Cumberland such as U.S. Secretary of State Cordell Hull. He told them they have "high standards" to live up to and they will need to become "engaged" in the challenges our country faces. He said, "For America and the world to enjoy an enduring peace for years to come, it will take graduates, entrepreneurs, nurses, teachers, scientists, explorers and believers like you to make it happen."

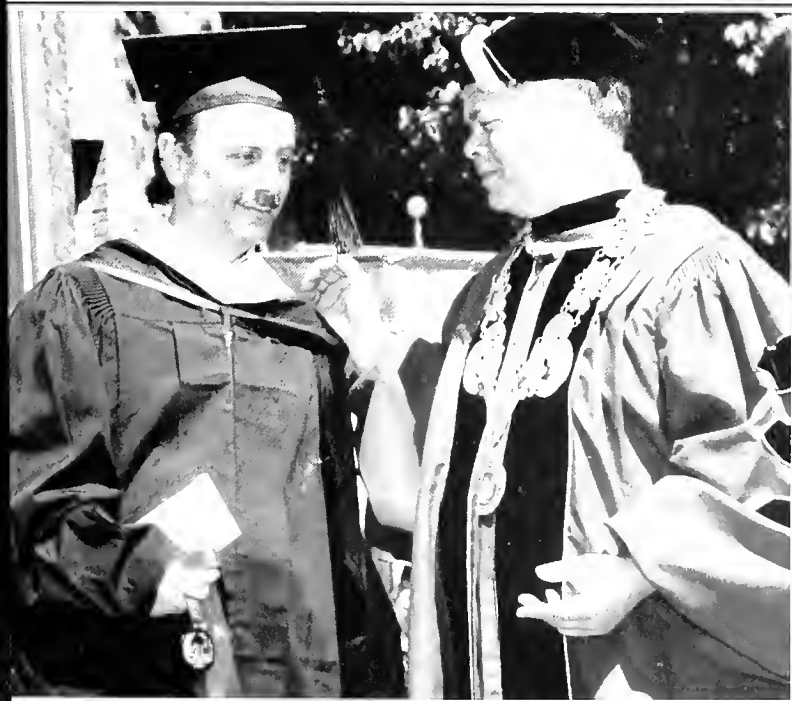

Dr. Eaton and Representative Ford shook hands with each and every graduate as they crossed the stage. Pictured above: Jenny Norton receives her Bachelor of Arts degree in Humanities and Social Science.

A new tradition!
 Dr. Eaton spoke to the graduates about beginning a new tradition by tossing the graduate caps at the conclusion of the ceremony. As you can see, the students loved it!

University Mace

The Mace of Cumberland University is a symbol of the power of knowledge and the significance of a liberal arts education. At the base is the milkweed pod, representing the many directions the seeds of education travel. At the top is the globe, representing the world of lifelong learning. As Cumberland's symbol, the Phoenix arises from the fire of ideas atop the globe. Phoenix medallions on the staff represent Cumberland University's academic schools. The Mace was a gift to the University from Dr. Jeanette Cantrell Rudy, member of the Board of Trust.

THE TRUE GENTLEMAN is the man whose conduct proceeds from good will and an acute sense of propriety; and whose self-control is equal to all emergencies; who does not make the poor man conscious of his poverty, or any man of his inferiority or deformity; who is himself humbled if necessity compels him to humble another; who does not flatter wealth, cringe before power, or boast of his own possessions or achievements; who speaks with frankness but always with sincerity and sympathy; whose deed follows his word; who thinks of the rights and feelings of other, rather than his own; and who appears well in any company, a man with whom honor is sacred and virtue safe.

STUDENT LIFE

CU @ HALLOWEEN

Once again CU @ Halloween was a complete success. Many campus organizations participated by having their members dress up and hand out candy to local children. The children had a wonderful time trick-or-treating and seeing Cumberland University students in their costumes.

STEA President John Parker entertained the children as "Cat-In-The-Hat".

SCA President, Rachel Jones was the Little Mermaid.

2004 NAIA Baseball National Champions!

Cumberland University Baseball ... Chasing a Dream

What can you say about the 2004 Baseball season? Nothing other than a dream come true? With high expectations, a wealth of tradition and a leader who expects nothing but 100%, this years Bulldog Baseball team started with aspirations of going to Lewiston, Idaho and challenging for a world series title. With many questioning those who worked tirelessly chasing the dream, this Bulldog team showed their resilience, coming together as few teams have done in the brilliant history of Bulldog Baseball.

The lesson learned from this special team: never forget the power of a dream. A nineteen game winning streak, fifteen consecutive wins in post season, defeating the #1 team in the country (twice) and carrying Coach Hunt off the field proudly displaying their rainbow after winning the national championship is: the dream come true. Congratulations and Thank You to Coach Woody Hunt and the Bulldogs for winning the 2004 NAIA National Championship.

Pat Lawson, CU Athletic Director

The team was greeted at the airport by supporters and were escorted back to campus to be recognized at the Phoenix Ball.

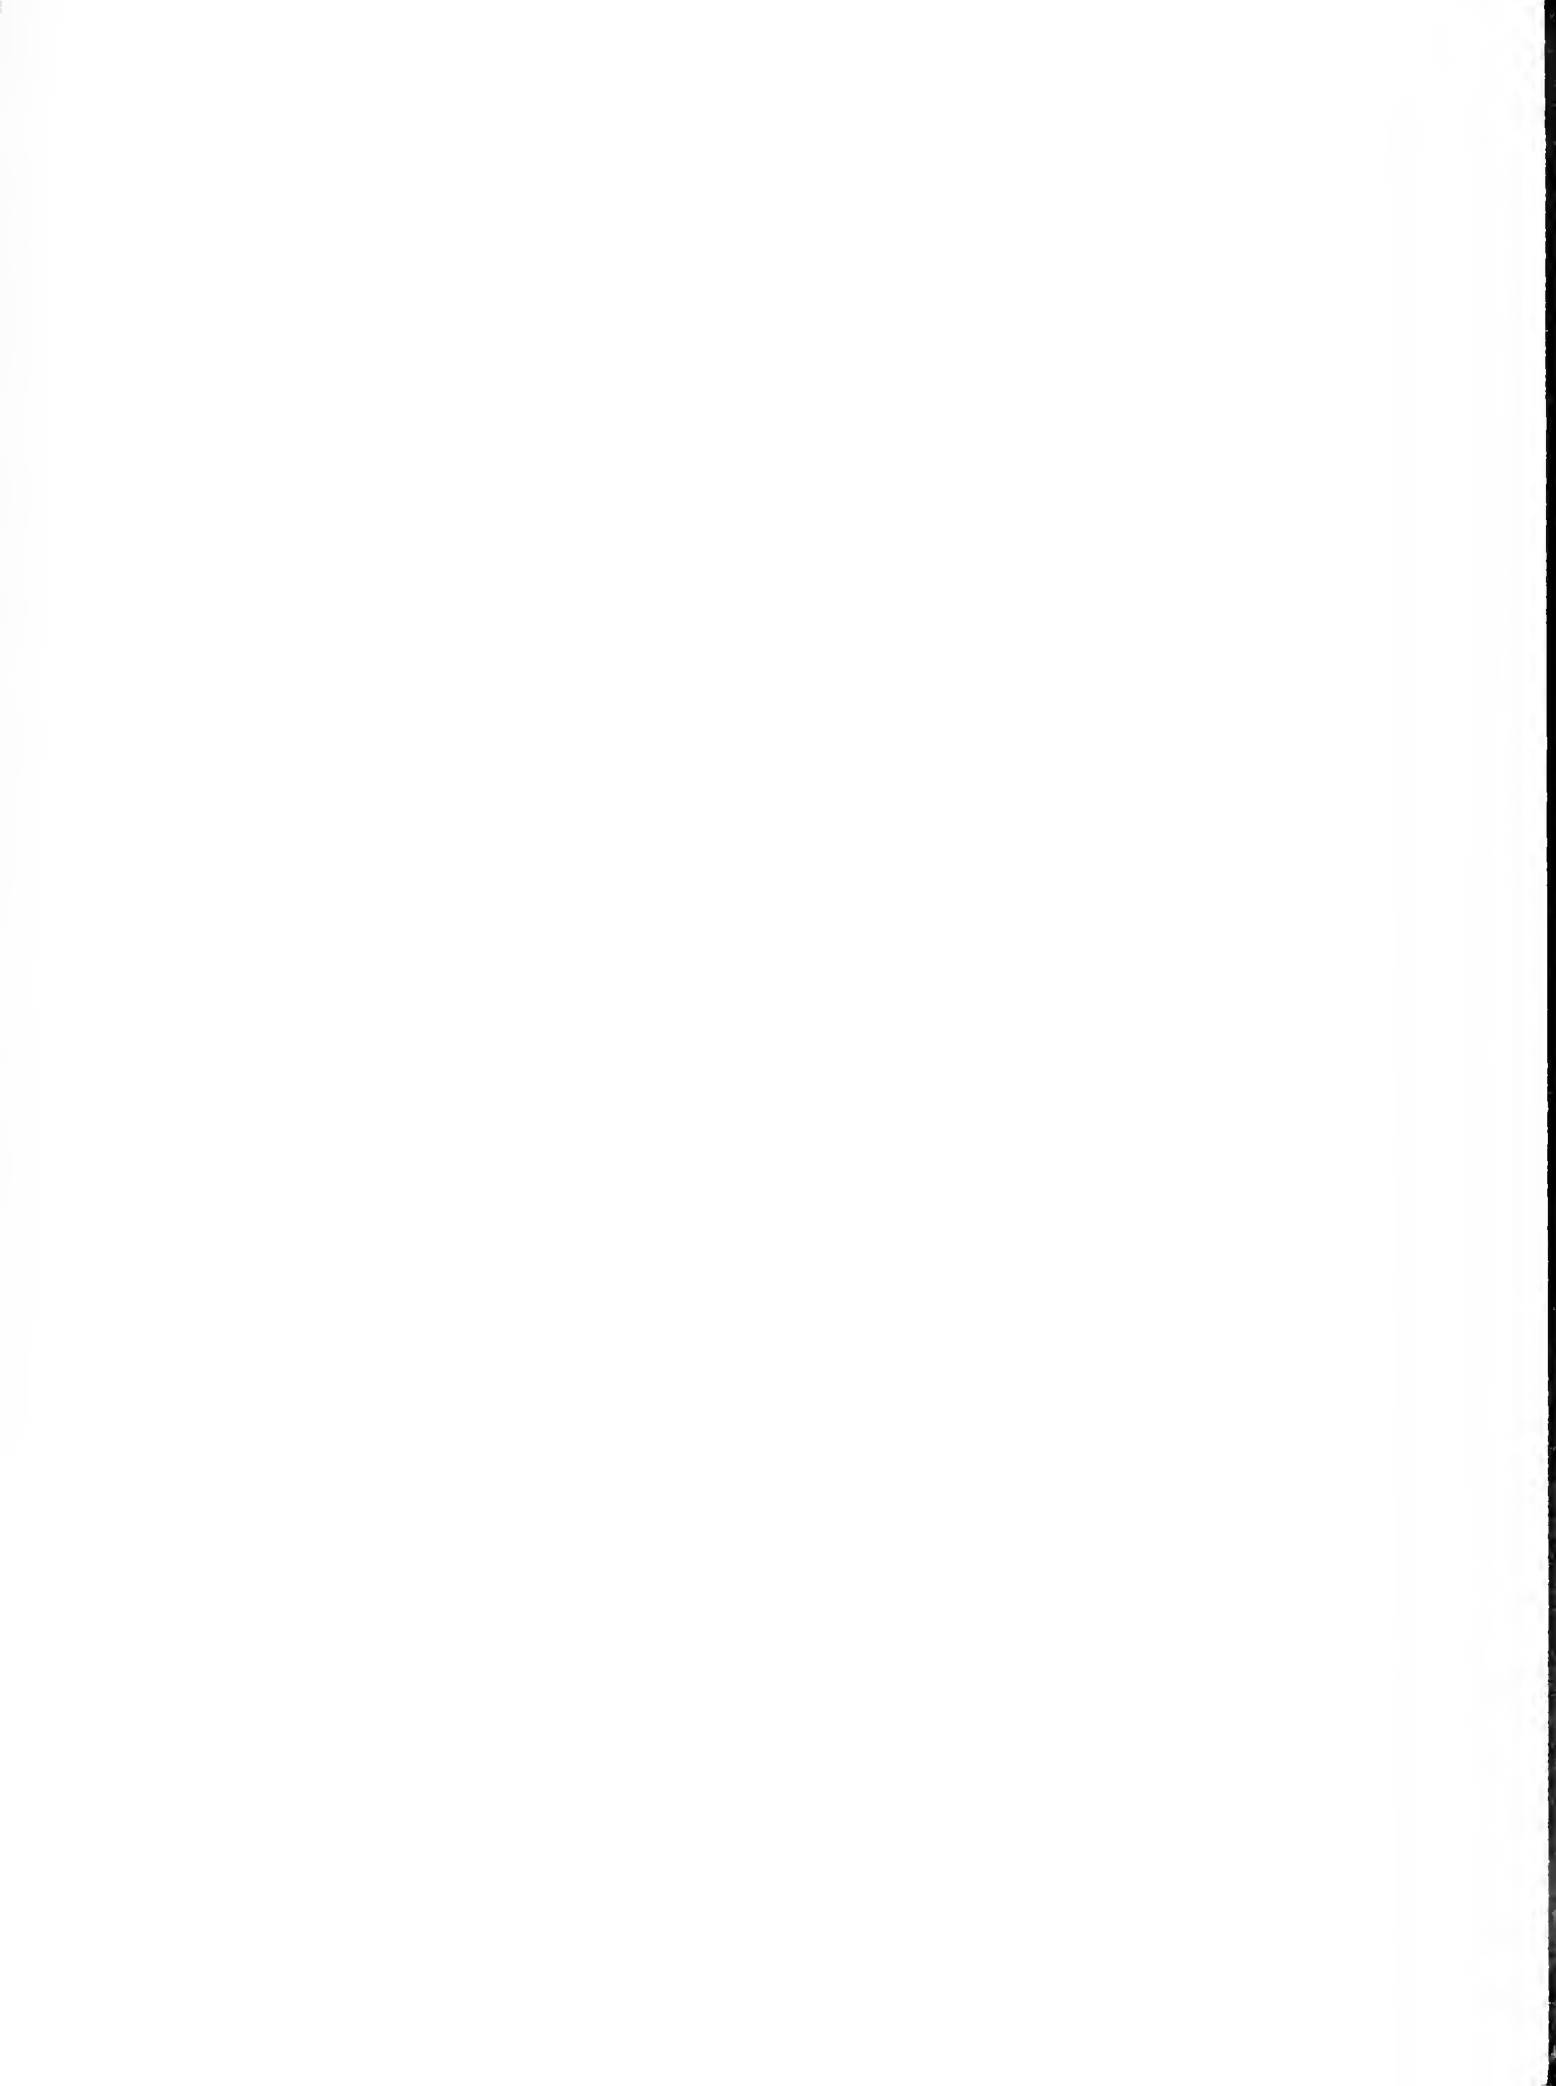

After the parade on Monday, the team returned to campus for Fun Fest where some of players entertained the kids in the dunking booth.
